DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see page 4, filed 14 January 2002, with respect to claims 1-11 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The 35 U.S.C. 102(b) of claims 1-11 has been withdrawn.

Regarding Applicant's arguments that Burkhart fails to disclose "a plurality of sliding pockets sunken into the supporting surface of the chuck, Examiner agrees. Burkhart discloses stationary pockets.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-11 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for the indication of the allowability of claims 1-8 is the inclusion therein, in combination as currently claimed, of the limitation of a plurality of sliding pockets sunken into the supporting surface of the chuck; and a plurality of sliding pads respectively floating-coupled in the sliding pockets such that the sliding pads are spaced apart from the supporting surface. This limitation is found in claims 1-8 and is neither disclosed nor taught by the prior art of record, alone or in combination.

The primary reason for the indication of the allowability of claims 9-11 is the inclusion therein, in combination as currently claimed, of the limitation of a method of sinking a plurality of sliding pockets into the supporting surface of the chuck; and forming a plurality of sliding pads respectively floating-coupled in the sliding pockets such that the sliding pads are spaced apart from the supporting surface. This limitation is found in claims 9-11 and is neither disclosed nor taught by the prior art of record, alone or in combination.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
